Announcement

Fellow Breeders and All Interested in Shorthorn Cattle:

It is a pleasure to invite you to our dispersion sale for the following reasons:

1. This is a most opportune time to lay the foundation or add to your herd.
2. We never sold a better lot of cattle, all things considered.
3. The herd has been culled and tested until only the very cream as producers is left.
4. Only a few places where you can find such fashionable pedigrees.
5. Prices are 50% lower today on pure bred live stock than the average on all commodities. They are bound to sell higher in the near future.

I started raising pure bred live stock September 4, 1880. I have enjoyed every minute of the time I have been in the business. Pure bred live stock has always paid its way.

We recommend these cattle as rapid producers of choice quality stock. The young things are especially promising. You will be wise to select the foundation for a herd at this time.

Why are we selling out at this time? Owing to my age and my inability to get competent help. It has been said that I am an authority on Scotch pedigrees and the cattle in my herd are faultless in ancestry. I also have always surrounded myself with rapid producing females,—the kind that are thoroughly dependable. They are offered in just moderate flesh condition but in a high state of production and health. I am selling to the public in this auction on September 2d, the kind of cattle that I always have sought for my own use when on the buying side of the market.

CHAS. WEIR.

The sale will be held under cover rain or shine. As this is a dispersion sale no guarantee is given although every cow old enough is safely in calf.

The cattle were tested for both Bang's disease and tuberculosis under Federal supervision and can be shipped anywhere.

All cattle at buyers risk as soon as bid off but will be cared for and loaded out as per instructions free of charge.

AUCTIONEERS: Carey Jones and Jack Halsey.

FIELDMEN—Hal Longley, Shorthorn World; Jack Halsey, Iowa Homestead and Wallaces' Farmer; T. W. Sherlock, Drovers Journal.

Bids may be sent to either fieldmen or auctioneers care of Chas. Weir.

Write Chas. Weir for catalogue.

Terms and Conditions

LOCATION—Rio is located 10 miles North of Galesburg, Illinois, on Highway 150 and one-half mile west and only 40 miles south of Rock Island and Moline, Illinois, on Highway 150. Sale at farm at south edge of town on gravel road.

TERMS—Cash. All settlements to be made immediately after the sale.

TIME—Sale starts promptly at 12 noon.

LUNCH—A nice lunch will be made available at the farm by the Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church.

TESTS—THE HERD IS FEDERALLY ACCREDITED and have been tested within 30 days for Bangs, therefore certificates can be furnished to ship into any state or territory.

PEDIGREES—A certificate of registration will be furnished with each individual lot sold and all animals over seven months of age or older. On calves less than seven months of age and not recorded or sold at foot with their dams an application of registry will be furnished.

GUARANTEE—This is a most prolific herd and all females of breeding age in this herd must produce a calf each year to keep her place in this herd, most all of breeding age have calves at foot or have some of their progeny in this auction which is evidence of their breeding worth and any known defects will be pointed out sale day. The fact this is a working herd of cattle sold in pasture condition and a complete dispersion, we will therefore give no further guarantee.

SHIPPING—All stock loaded free on cars or will help load into trucks at the direction of the purchaser but will be at buyers risk as soon as bid off. No animals to be removed from farm until settlement has been made with the clerk of sale. Auctioneer selling will settle all disputes with regard to bids should any arise. I will not be responsible in case of an accident.

FIELDMEN—Hal Longley, Shorthorn World; J. E. Halsey, Wallaces' Farmer and Iowa Homestead; T. W. Sherlock, Chicago Drovers Journal.

AUCTIONEERS—Carey M. Jones, Chicago, Ill.; John Halsey, Des Moines, Iowa.

CLERKS—Ross Litchfield and Mildred Weir.
